A detailed black and white illustration of a large, multi-story industrial building, possibly a warehouse or factory. The building has a complex roofline with multiple gables and a series of tall, narrow windows. A sign on the roof reads "ALF. A. THOMPSON". The building is surrounded by a cobblestone street and several barrels or casks are visible in the foreground. The illustration is signed "J. H. H. 1888" in the bottom right corner.

THE SUCCESS OF THE

Provident Savings Life Assurance

SOCIETY

— OF —

NEW YORK

Is attracting wide attention, for the following reasons:

1st. The increase in the amount of new Insurance in 1889 was 66 per cent. over that of the previous year.

2d. New business in 1889 nearly twenty millions of dollars.

3d. The ratios of payments for Death Claims and Expenses to amount at Risk are LOWER than those of the oldest and largest Life Insurance Companies of New York; and the Ratios of Assets to Liabilities in the Provident Savings Life are LARGER, being $206 for every $100 of Liabilities, while in the three largest of the New York Companies the Ratios are as $127, $118 and $108 to every $100 of their Li-

4th. Life Insurance at ACTUAL COST, that brings insurance within the reach of many heretofore unable to carry it.

5th. It never costs one-half the price charged for it in "Best Old Style Life Companies," whose experience proves that hardly 39 per cent. of their Premium Receipts were necessary to insure the lives of their Policy-holders; while the balance was used besides insurance.

FOR SOMETHING ELSE

6th. Past experience shows that the better the plans of the Society are known, the greater its income becomes.

To know what these plans are, call at the Company's office in Greensboro, N. C., or on any of my Agents in the State.
